It was that kind of year—a year in which the halls were lined with students talking with one another—some serious, some laughing, some complaining about too many lessons. Many hurried through the halls having only enough time to say, “Hi!” or “Hello!” It was a year in which students enjoyed themselves during noon hours—walking, talking, or hopping around in a car with their friends.

Yes, it was a year of change. Good change. Fort Branch High increased its enrollment from 420 to 506 students. A new classroom was built and six new teachers were added to our faculty. Not only the school changed but also the styles and ideas of the students. New styles, new fads, and new ideas about national problems were prominent.

But the most important element of daily life went unchanged. We studied and learned well, and just as important, the smiles, the laughter, the friends, and the helping of others have stayed with us and have grown stronger. Yes, many say that the times have changed. How true!

Lilac Festival Brings a Touch

Queen Nancy Elpers

of Spring

The Sunshine Society of Fort Branch High School sponsored the 34th annual Lilac Festival on April 24, 1970. For years this festive event has been heralding the arrival of spring in a musically-accented carousel of flowers, romance, and youthful talent.

Nancy Elpers was crowned in a colorful ceremony by last year's queen, Janice Stone. Nancy was attended by Janet Bender as maid of honor and Sarah Kifer as senior attendant. Little Susan Wilm and Clare Reising served as flower girls, and Scott Logsdon carried the crown pillow.

Following the coronation, a variety program was presented by the junior and senior class members.

Sherry Smith's fire baton routine was one of the many highlights of the Festival.

Kathy Schmitt and Frances Newman perform to the music of 'I'd Do Anything for You'.

Four senior girls Mary Wilkerson, Rose Hurling, Delby Robinson, and Karen Nubling give the photographer a credit smile.

Peacefulness of Tahiti Comes

Bob Minnette's Melotones help provide a tropical atmosphere for the evening.

The theme chosen for the Junior-Senior Prom of 1970 was "Tahitian Holiday." The ninety-one couples attending the prom danced under the towering palm trees and colorful ceiling. A South Sea mural and a large tiki completed the tropical atmosphere.

Bob Minnette's Melotones provided the music for the evening and prom-goers were served by the junior mothers.

Following the prom, a dance was held at the Dream Motel in Patoka sponsored by the Zeta Gamma Chapter of Psi Iota Xi of Fort Branch. Members of the Kiwanis Club served a delicious breakfast at Holy Cross School. To climax an evening of memories that one will never forget, a hayride was held at the home of Elaine Reinhart.

DAR Good Citizen

Each year the Daughters of the American Revolution award the DAR Good Citizen award to an outstanding girl from each high school. The faculty of each school chooses the school representative. The DAR Good Citizen is chosen for academic excellence, dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Citizenship and attitude are very important factors in choosing a Good Citizen. Once a representative is chosen, she takes a competitive examination. Winners in the County, State, and Nation are chosen. By presenting this award, the Daughters of the American Revolution recognize loyalty and patriotism in a young woman.

Sharon Winterheimer, DAR award winner, represents FBHS in the County DAR Contest.

Girls' and Boys' State delegates were chosen by the High School faculty for their academic ability, leadership in school activities, and interest in government.

The purpose of Hoosier Boys' and Girls' State is to give young people the practical experience of setting up a mock Indiana government. The delegates gain a deeper appreciation for their State government and a deeper reverence for the American way by residing in mythical cities as well as nominating and electing city, county, and state officers.

True spirit and peace can be better achieved only when one knows how to express himself. It is the responsibility of the FBHS English Department to teach these basic skills of grammar, composition, and language to all students and thereby help them acquire the confidence in self-expression which is so necessary today.

The department of Spanish not only teaches a student the language but also informs him of the culture from which it comes. Through the use of tape recorders and filmstrips, the students acquire better hearing and speaking skills.

All languages stem from the ancient language of Latin. By translating Latin, students gain a new respect for the intellectual abilities of the Romans. The Latin students realize how much Roman Culture, customs, language, and government are a part of the American way of living.

Government is a course organized to make students aware of the laws of their society. It is designed to give a greater enlightenment on how governments operate throughout the world. Economics is the practical science dealing with the satisfaction of human wants.

Psychology students study behavior and mental activities of human beings and have the opportunity to dwell upon man's human process. The class is structured so that the student will learn to apply psychological terms and practices to his own surroundings for greater understanding. Sociology students study origin and development, discovering the cultures and environment of their ancestors.

A student's knowledge of geography better acquaints him with the lives and problems of people throughout the world. History is designed to inform the student of his heritage and of the past problems overcome by the overwhelming ability of man to understand one another.

Agriculture and shop are courses which provide the student with proper skills and attitudes to enter into the fields of our modern world. Agriculture students are taught farm management and study the influence of agriculture on economy. Music and Art Add Rhythm and Color to School

Today's teens strive continuously to make a name for themselves, to stand out. FBHS students strive to better themselves culturally. In this way they not only make an outstanding mark but also better themselves in so doing.

Music played an active part in developing its participants culturally. The instrumental department was larger this year. The high school band strove for precision, professionalism, and balance and sought Mr. Miley's approval with each new piece. Many students participated in the Solo & Ensemble Contest this year.

Art Class enables a student to express his own individuality. First year students are taught basic art skills and appreciation of art. Students of the second year expand their individual interests. Projects include tie-dying, painting, sculpturing, and drawing everything from flowers to human models.

The basic objective of the FBHS math department is to assist the student in appreciating the importance of mathematics in our society. From the simple principle of addition to the complicated calculations of logarithmic functions, the student's capacity to think is put to the fullest.

General science, biology, chemistry and physics are all basic parts of a student's education.

These courses are organized to cultivate knowledge of the earth and its surroundings. The students work together in educating today's modern, young, and probing minds for the progress of the future and for the everlasting knowledge of mankind's world—thus, holding the key to the mysteries of today and the wonders of tomorrow.

Driver's Education teaches students the rules, skills, and attitudes necessary to safe driving. The students study their textbooks, covering everything from the basic safety rules to the correct way to change a flat tire. The Student Council rolled into action at the beginning of the school year by carrying out the initiation of the freshmen and concentrating on the Football and Basketball Queen Crownings. Following the basketball crowning, the Council sponsored a sock hop and planned to use all the proceeds for future projects.

Then it was time to start thinking about Christmas. The Student Council decorated a Christmas tree and the school and provided Christmas music in the halls.

After vacation, the Council got down to work, thinking of ways to improve the student's life around school. This year the Student Council was responsible for selecting the escorts for the Queens and their courts. Several "Scruffy Days" and "Dress-up Days" were sponsored.

Toward the end of the year, the election of President and Vice President for next year was held.

The Student Council's success relied a great deal upon the hard work of its President, Dennis Perkins and Sponsor, Mrs. Jean Landlaw.

Beta Bears Honor of Recognition

The Beta Club is composed of those individuals who have maintained outstanding scholastic achievements throughout high school. Its aim is to improve the character and citizenship of its members and to improve the school and community by lending a helping hand whenever needed.

The year began with the initiation of the new members at a banquet held at Holy Cross. The new members staged a humorous skit, delighting the rest of the members. In November the officers, along with their sponsor, Mr. Robert Michel, attended the State Convention at Indianapolis. Before Christmas the club sponsored a "Toys for Tots" campaign for the children of the unemployed Whirlpool workers.

This year the Betas sold Christmas cards and stationery and held several bake sales to earn money for their trip to Mammoth Cave and Nashville, Tennessee.

Sophomores take part in Beta initiation skit.

The Wonderful World of FHA

The Future Homemakers of America have 120 members. In the summer the officers attended the State Convention at Ball State University. On October 8, the FHA held a Texas Roundup for their Fathers, which proved to be an enjoyable evening. The Sadie Hawkins Dance was held on November 8 at the Youth Center. Mariann Bender was crowned Daisy Mae and Dennis Wilzbacher, L'l Abner.

All the members enjoyed giving a Christmas program for the elderly at the Gibson General Hospital on December 21.

For money-making projects FHA members sold jewelry, Rex cleaner, and calenders.

FFA . . . Emphasis on Agriculture

The FFA Chapter of Fort Branch High School was very active this year. During the summer months, four members attended the State FFA Convention at Purdue University; and the entire group took an educational tour of St. Louis.

The beginning of school brought the initiation of eleven new members. To highlight the year, Mr. Paul Cardinal, Sponsor, Gary Michel, and Mike Spindler traveled to Kansas City, Missouri, for the annual National FFA Convention. In October, the County and District Soil Judging contests were held. The Fort Branch Chapter placed second in both contests. As a social activity, the Chapter co-sponsored, with the FHA, the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

In the spring, several members entered livestock, dairy, and crop judging contests. At the Father Son Banquet, awards were presented to deserving members.

Advisor, Mr. Harold Haley, discusses drug program with Dr. Roger Newton.

The Key Club is sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club. It is not a part of the Kiwanis Club, but works together with the Kiwanis members on several projects.

One of the money-making projects was selling sport-style jerseys to the student body. This year the Club sponsored a highly successful "Operation Drug Alert" campaign. Dr. Roger Newton spoke to the student body about drugs and the problems of drug abuse. To conclude the campaign, the Club took a survey on drug usage that included Haubstadt, Owensville, and Fort Branch students. Another activity was collecting money for the Salvation Army and Heart Fund.

During the holiday season the Key Club, along with the SSS, staged the annual Holly Ball, which proved to be the highlight of the Christmas season.

JCL Explores Roman Culture

The JCL is an organization that gives students an opportunity to learn about Roman life and culture. To be a member, one must either be currently taking Latin or else have completed two years of Latin.

The members are kept active throughout the year by presenting a Roman style show and an annual Roman Banquet to honor the seniors. The Banquet is held on the Ides of March; and to highlight the evening, a Roman slave auction is held.

This spring the Club attended the annual JCL State Convention at Indiana University.

Final arrangements for the Roman Banquet are being made by Randy Oing, Vice President, and Trudy Pirkle, President.

From beginning to end, this year has been outstanding for the Fort Branch Band. The summer activities began with several parades and camp at Treble Acres, where work was done on the State Fair show. After camp the band enjoyed a two-day trip to St. Louis. Back in Fort Branch the State Fair show was polished. Football season started soon after the fair, and a lot of hard work was put in on half-time shows. The West Side Fall Festival parade was the climax of the marching season. Ft. Branch was awarded the Grand Marshal's trophy.

The Pep Band helped to add to the spirit at our home basketball games and played while our Golden Gals performed.

Concert band soon started. In the spring the band went on Spring Tour and had the annual Spring Concert. Then commencement came, thus ending another great year.

These outstanding seniors have traveled from the Orange Bowl to the St. Louis Arch working and enjoying each minute.

The Pep Club for the 1970-71 school year was one of the greatest yet! All of the members showed real school spirit. Again this year the cheerleaders awarded the spirit stick to the class that could push the team with the most vocal power. The purpose of the Pep Club was to keep school spirit alive and enthusiastic and to support the teams and cheerleaders.

Looking into the past for new ideas are Co-editors Joni Walburn and Anna White

Each month the journalism-minded juniors and seniors of Fort Branch High School published the school newspaper, the Twigs Twitter. The staff of publishers was headed by the Co-editors, Anna White and Joni Walburn, who had the responsibility of supervising the entire staff.

A "Dear Abner" column was added to this year's paper. Abner was ready and willing to suggest solutions to anyone's problems. Again this year, the editorial section served as a sounding board for the student body. If one wanted to be "in the know", he had to read the "Snoopy Scoop" section. It was always a revealer of the latest gossip.

The person primarily responsible for meeting deadlines and reviewing material before publication was the sponsor, Mrs. Judy Phillips.

The 1971 Yearbook Staff worked long and hard to create this year's annual. Everyone was required to do his job if the book was to become a reality. Many evenings after school the lights burned late in the basement of the Commerce Building. Pictures had to be taken, pages had to be drawn up, and many decisions had to be made by the editors and their sponsor. A person never realizes what hard work it takes to produce a good year book until he gets on the staff. Without the help of our sponsor, Miss Marlene Obert, this year's book would not have been a success.

Hustle Through Fine Season

The Twigs had another fine season this year. After a heartbreaking loss in the first game, due to several players getting leg cramps, the Twigs came on strong in the next game and fought to an impressive 29-6 victory over Wood Memorial.

The Twigs played another great game against Owensville, beating them 58-8 on a rain soaked muddy field.

The next game was against highly rated South Spencer. The Twigs looked great, but after building up a 21-6 lead, the larger South Spencer team came alive to defeat the Twigs 28-21.

The Twigs got back in the winning by beating Dale 13-6 and then shut out their opponents in the next 3 games for three more wins.

The Twigs had trouble in their last game. Being out-sized and outmanned, the Twigs lost in a hard-played battle to Huntingburg 22-6.

A 6-3 record is really quite an accomplishment for the Twigs, considering that they lacked speed and physical size. But the Twigs didn't lack spirit or determination. Each player did his job well. Most of the yardage piled up was due to powerful running, but the passes came when they were needed. The defense though small, was able to handle most of the teams well.

A great deal of credit must also go to the fine coaching the Twigs had this season. Head coach Jack Jewell and his assistants were able to bring spirit back into the team after losing the first game. Yes, it was a good season this year.

With the return of many seniors this year, the Twigs had a fine display of sharpshooting and a rigid defense. The Twigs started the season well beating North Posey and then blasting their big rival Haubstadt 56-44. The Twigs played well against Tell City but the Marksmen pulled away near the end to hand the Twigs their first loss. The Twigs bounced back defeating Huntingburg but lost to Central and then to Harrison in a game which was decided by a last second field goal by one of the Warriors.

In the Holiday Tourney the Twigs suffered their 3rd straight loss, but came back in the consolation game to beat North Posey 67-44.

The Twigs' next two games were big ones as the Twigs downed highly rated South Spencer and then fought to an exciting overtime victory against arch rival Princeton.

The Twigs kept their winning streak alive beating Owensville, powerful Memorial, and Dale in another close game. In the remainder of the season the Twigs played more fine ball to finish out a fabulous season.

The Twigs success relied heavily on fine teamwork, a solid defense, and a balanced scoring attack.

Baseball Twigs Hit Fine Season

Seated: Mike Robeson, Randy O'Leary, Terry Graham, Jay Burger, Tim Wilson, Bob Moss, Student Manager, Bart Robeson

Just give a Twig baseball player a ball and a bat and he will always give opponents competition they will never forget. This competitive spirit never dies in a true Twig.

Baseball practice is not always fun and games. Skill in running, quick reflexes, knowledge of the sport, and devotion of time after school are a few things that make up a good baseball player.

This year was a fine year for the baseball Twigs, under the supervision of Coach Larry Holder and Asst. Coach Jim Reid. Many veterans returned this year making the team even more powerful.

LeGrange tosses a few warm ups before the game.

Cross Country—Track Test Stamina

Seated: Mark Lindauer, Dave Hamby, Paul Williamson, George Glidish, Eddie Wilm.
Kneeling: Wayne Groves, Jeff Gentry, Danny Malone. Standing: Andy Kiesel, Coach Chet Garrett, Bob Dunning.

Cross Country

Cross country is a sport that tests strength, endurance, and desire. The cross-country runner gets into shape by running two miles or more a day. During a meet the two-mile run is a constant struggle to get ahead of the opponents and stay ahead no matter how tired one may be.

The Twigs had a good season this year. Danny Malone showed a fine individual effort, finishing first in several meets to help the Twigs overcome their opponents.

Malone prepares for a 2 mile run

Frederick, Roger Schmitt. Standing: Greg McEvoy, Gary Kersch, Richard Wallace, Gert Munnier, Dave Schmitt, Dennis Perkins, Coach James Sprinkle.

Track

At Fort Branch, track isn't a well publicized sport. There aren't many cheering fans urging the team on to victory, but the trackmen still have plenty of spirit. In track a runner competes not only against other runners but he is also competes against the exhaustion of his own body, using the desire of self-satisfaction to fight off pain. But running isn't the only part of track. There is pole vaulting, high jumping, broad jumping, and shot putting. Each of these events requires strength, skill, and stamina.

Eugene Huelsman, Bonnie Mounts, Student Manager

It's a proud moment. He's just received a piece of paper that may be worth $65,000. It's his high school diploma. Because of it, he has an edge over those who didn't finish high school. He has a better chance of finding and keeping a job. And he'll probably earn about $65,000 more during his lifetime, according to a recent survey. If he goes on and finishes college, he stands to earn an additional $100,000 (average) during his lifetime. The one who is best equipped has a big competitive advantage. Fact is, any way you look at it, a good education is well worth the effort. Good luck!

It is a new dawn. But dawn is another year. It just doesn't go away again but surely never to be forgotten. The TWIG staff of 1971 hopes that we have captured and presented memories measured by both the seniors and the underclassmen.

Through dimly lit hours, sessions with Miss Ober and most of all teamwork we have brought about this book. The staff hopes that you will consider it a success and in the years to come you will look back at 1971 and remember it not as the end but as the dawning.

The senior editor, Dennis Perkins, Editor William and Truly Pirkle handle each of what we determine the best during the mailbox.
